

Hydrant flushing set in Madison Twp.

N-H
3-31-2012
The Lake County Department of Utilities will begin unidirectional flushing of hydrants Monday in Madison Township.

Flushing will continue for about two months starting with section 17 and continuing sequentially through each section.

Residents should watch for flushing signs in their area. Updates will be posted on the Lake County web site at www.lakecountyohio.gov/utilities.